Napanee's leading soldier-citizen dies

Harry LeRoy Babcock, 83, died at Kingston General Hospital on July 20.

Mr. Babcock was born in Yarker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Babcock.

He achieved the rank of lieutenant-colonel during his service in the two world wars. He started as an infantry man in the trenches during the First World War.

Before the war had ended had joined the Royal Flying Corps in England.

After the war he worked in Gibbard Furniture and headed the boy scouts in Napanee.

He was a member of the militia during this time and served as commanding officer of the Frontenac Regiment. When the Frontenac Regiment was transferred from an infantry to artillery corps, he became commanding officer of the 47th field battery in Napanee.

At the beginning of the Second World War, he enlisted and was a training officer at several bases in Eastern Canada.

In 1980, Branch 137 of the Canadian Legion in Napanee was named the Lt.-Col. Harry Babcock branch in his honor. He had been a charter member of the Napanee branch when it was formed in 1927.

After the Second World War, he and his wife Ruth operated a general store at Conway until his retirement. He moved to 162 Alma St., in Napanee recently.

Mr. Babcock was a faithful member of the Progressive Conservative Party. MPP James Taylor of Prince Edward-Lennox describes him as "Mr. Conservative of Eastern Ontario."

He held several positions on the association executive and was a chief organizer of election campaigns.

He is survived by his wife Ruth, and sons Harold of Toronto, Richard of RR 1, Bath, and Neil of Stella; by grandchildren Stacey, Laurie and Gregory; and by a sister Mrs. Harold Cameron (Ruth) of Orangeville.

He is predeceased by Dr. A.B. Babcock and F.H. Babcock.

He rests at the Tierney Funeral Home. A funeral service was to be held today at the Church of St. Mary Magdalene at 11 a.m., Canon John Hart officiating.

Interment is at St. Paul's Cemetery in Sandhurst.

Lt.-Col. Harry Babcock
...soldier, businessman, scout.

19. Royal Air Force (2): Roosters and Fledglings

Roosters and Fledglings, formerly The Fledgling, commenced publication in June of 1917, under the auspices of the Air Ministry. Scarcity of paper was a problem, but scarcity of material was not, and the quality of both written and artistic/photographic material was high. The magazine originated from St. Leonards-on-Sea, where most recruits began basic training. When Harry Babcock enrolled in the R.A.F., a Canadian, Lt.-Col. W.G. MacFarlane, was the administrator for the cadet brigade and liaison officer for the magazine. Col. Babcock has annotated his copies with references to his own memories.

THE HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK, FRONTENAC REGIMENT

Col. Babcock had prepared a scrapbook on the history of the Frontenac Regiment, which he labelled "No. 3" and intended to follow in sequence behind the earlier letter books. However, No. 3 was a different format, and consisted of an old ledger, with most pages missing, in which new but highly acidic newsprint sheets had been glued. A combination of paper tape, glue and pins held a variety of materials, but many clippings, letters and photographs were loose, stuffed between pages.

In order to facilitate storage and cataloguing, it was decided to disassemble the Scrapbook, but to retain the order imposed by Col. Babcock. (981.23.351)
